Smoking'll Kill Warren Zevon

By ACSH Staff — September 13, 2002

"I'm OK with it, but it'll be a drag if I don't make it until the next James Bond movie comes out."

Warren Zevon, fifty-five year-old singer of "Werewolves of London," on being diagnosed with terminal lung cancer, as reported September 12 by Associated Press, which did not mention Zevon's smoking, and Reuters, which did.

Zevon, a longtime smoker, quit eight years ago. He has retained his sense of humor and his trademark logo, a skull wearing shades and smoking a cigarette.
Responses:
December 31, 2003

Asbestos, Not Rock and Roll, Fells Warren Zevon!

Not tobacco-smoking...

"SANTA BARBARA, Calif., Sept. 8 /PRNewswire/ The Mesothelioma Applied Research Foundation extends its condolences to the family, friends and fans of Warren Zevon. The singer songwriter died September 7 of mesothelioma.