Here's your Friday Medical Wrap covering our top stories: Why women are getting needless mammograms, Another way to treat high blood pressure, A new vaccine that could control autism, Why some are silent over e-cigarette’s surge in popularity, and more on labeling genetically engineered foods.